

Deals: Mexico

THE RECORD

Mountain bike through Mexico

The deal: Bike tour experts H+I Adventures are offering eight-day tours through Mexico that combine biking and cultural events. Travelers can experience the famed festivals Day of the Dead in the fall or the weeklong Semana Santa celebrations in the spring, as well as staying in traditional villages and biking through the challenging but beautiful terrain of the Sierra Norte. Bikers will also meet local craftspeople, learn about how mezcal is made and taste staples of the Oaxaca state's famous cuisine, among other activities.

Cost: $2,480.

What's included: Expert English-speaking mountain bike guides for the entire trip; all meals except for two dinners; transfer to and from Mexico City; accommodations for seven nights; all ground costs; back-up vehicles and luggage/bike transfer; group safety equipment; airport pick-up and drop-off.

When: Oct. 26 to Nov. 2; April 8 to 15, 2017; Oct. 26 to Nov. 2, 2017.

Information: 888-228-5035, mountainbikeworldwide.com.

— Sophia F. Gottfried